Wild, Loud Peace – Dawn Lipsey

Wild Loud Peace – Chapter One – Class Notes

1. Let peace have a megaphone over your _____.

2. Cheerleaders at sporting events and speakers at political rallies raise their megaphones to be _____ _____ many voices.

3. Regardless of the person or place, megaphones _____ the sound volume of a speaker's voice so the listener can hear it.

4. It has been suggested people have anywhere from 12,000 to 60,000 thought per day. … estimates indicate that up to 80% of those thoughts are _____ and 95% are repetitive.

5. These mental tormentors are noisy! _____ bangs with fret, dread, and distress, while depression clangs with sadness, emptiness and hopelessness.

6. In 1 Corinthians 14:33 Paul says, "For God is not the _____ of confusion but of peace. Confusion is the opposite of peace. It is the peace stealer.

7. Jesus gives us the _____ of peace. "Peace I leave with you, My peace I give to you; not as the world gives do I give to you. Let not let your heart be troubled, neither let it be afraid" (John 14:27 NKJV).

8. His peace is inseparable from His _____. It comes with Him, like an atmosphere. It is never where He is not, so His presence in vital.

9. You cannot have the peace of God until you first have peace with God. You must _____ Him into your heart and ask Him to forgive you of your sins.

10. Confusion must leave because the Author of peace is dictating a new story, then "the peace of God which surpasses all understanding, will _____ your hearts and minds through Jesus Christ" (Philippians 4:7 NKJV).

11. Let His voice be the only sound you _____ to hear over your mind, heart, emotions, family, job, finances, relationships, and health. Listen intently to His words of peace as they flood in and let them permeate every single thought.